

Support Groups are currently being held online only via Zoom

FATHERHOOD CIRCLE

A Support Group for Fathers

Who?

FATHERS currently or previously involved with Alameda County Department of Children and Family Services

Where?

Support Groups are currently online only. A link will be shared with you upon registration

When?

1st and 3rd Friday of each month;
10am – 12pm

Contact:

Parent Engagement Program County
Clerk: (510)780-8894

South County

Stipend Available

This group offers a safe, non-judgmental place where fathers can get support, develop practical parenting skills, and share important resources while learning successful strategies for navigating the social services system.

Sponsored by: Alameda County Department of Children and Family Services in Partnership with A Better Way